Art Unit: 3653

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-13, in the reply filed on 20 July 2006 is acknowledged.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The language "employ vacuum corrugated feeder technology" in claim 3 line 2 and the language "employ shuttle feeder technology" in claim 4 line 2 is indefinite because the recitations are unduely vague. Each of these recitations fails to clearly define any specific structure, therefore; the examiner is unable to fully ascertain the scope of the claims.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2 and 5 through 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the Canon NP6551 Operator's Manual (Canon).

Canon teaches a document forming apparatus comprising: a substrate feeder for storing and dispensing substrates to a printing engine; a controller for controlling operation of the apparatus; and user interface for controlling the operation of the document forming apparatus where the user interface includes various aspects of control for the functions of the different subsystems of the document forming apparatus. See pages 1-16 through 1-23 and 4-2 through 4-22.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 3, 4 and 8 through 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Canon in view of Clark.

Canon as interpreted above in paragraph 5 teaches everything the specific type of feeder assemblies.

Clark teaches feeder assemblies for a document forming apparatus employ vacuum feeders which corrugated and shuttle a substrate from a stack to that portion of the apparatus which forms the image on the substrate.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to employ the feeder assemblies of the type taught by Clark in the document forming apparatus disclosed by Canon.

9. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the vacuum corrugated feeder and the shuttle feeder must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
